

THE SPRINGS of Tampa Bay

Keynote speakers: Ted Bunch, Co-founder of A CALL TO MEN: The 19th Annual Gift of Peace Breakfast for The Spring joins together leaders from Tampa Bay's business and civic communities as well as law enforcement agencies. This powerful and moving event challenges over 800 influential men and women to prevent domestic violence, protect victims, and change our communities. This year, we were honored to have as our keynote speaker Ted Bunch - founder of A Call to Men, a leading national organization addressing men's violence against women. Also providing a compelling Keynote about the abuse he, his mother and two brothers suffered at the hands of his father was Jareb Dauplaise, screen actor who recently starred in the hit series "The Suite Life of Zach and Cody"

A CALL TO MEN conducted a class focused on domestic violence sexual assault and violence prevention at Freedom High School in Tampa Bay
